

David Levine

February 16, 2026

David H. Levine of Scotch Plains, New Jersey, passed away on February 16, 2026 at the age of 83. Born in Staten Island, New York and raised in Hillside, New Jersey, David later resided in Plainfield then Westfield, New Jersey, and Sarasota, Florida before moving to Scotch Plains.

David graduated with a B.A. from Rutgers, Newark 1964, and a M.A. in History from Fairleigh Dickinson 1967. He loved teaching and taught from the 1970's throughout the 90's as well as worked for the Westfield Recreation Commission operating the summer camps in Westfield, NJ. David was a history buff as well as a 30-year member of the American Philatelic Society. In addition, he loved softball and played for the Avengers, over 60 League, as long as he was able and then continued to be involved in a management position. David loved animals, nature and camping with his family and life-long friend Alan Mackey. He also loved music, movies and going out Friday nights with his long-time close friend Elliot Newcomb.

Preceded in death by his parents Samuel Levine and Edna Klawnsky Levine and niece Suzanne Levine. David is survived by his two sons, Jesse Levine, Stephen Levine and his wife Paula, his grandchildren, Nazareena Levine, Etym Levine and Emma Levine, his two brothers, Arthur Levine and his wife Phyllis and Robert Levine and his wife Sue, as well as nephews Sam and
